

THEN
INDIGO

resources, ltd.

2013, Arkansas rail-to-barge transport facility

“Work would begin late this year and finish in nine months”

No permits filed, no plans released

Osceola, AR - small town
High unemployment rate after factories closing

“[Puente] said the company would place a priority on hiring military veterans. ”

600-800 temporary jobs
200 permanent high paying jobs

“In addition up to 200 acres will be available for other companies to take advantage of co-location opportunities.”

Osceola, AR - Per capita income $16,600

NOW

2017, South Texas proposed refinery

“Construction is expected to begin in the next two to three months and should be completed by late 2018”

No permits filed, no plans released

Bruni, TX - small town
High unemployment rate after Eagle Ford bust

“[Tijerina] had a promise from Raven about the hiring of veterans to work at the refinery.”

1,200-1,800 temporary jobs
300-500 permanent high paying jobs

“The company also owns an additional 632 acres adjacent to the proposed complex that is available for co-development.”

Hebbronville, TX - Per capita income $17,500

TIMELINE

PERMITS

LOCATION

VETERANS

JOBS

LAND USE

RESIDENTS

In 2013, Raven failed to deliver on its promises under the name Indigo Resources. Raven has proved before that they can't be trusted, so why should we trust them this time?